0.0 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY .....	2
The market across ten European countries was worth approximately €2.18 billion in 2007... ..	2
... within which warranties and insurance linked to brown goods account for the lion's share.....	3
... with this segment also likely to have been the most rapidly growing between 2003 and 2007 .....	3
Extended warranty schemes operated by manufacturer brands are most widespread in the UK .....	3
Retailer warranty programs often incorporate protection in the event of accidental damage.....	4
... and are more likely to be run in conjunction with an external insurance company or broker.....	4
A number of factors will assist continuing growth in the warranty and insurance market... ..	4
... including the launch of new schemes, improved cross-selling and product innovation .....	5
The dynamics of the warranty and insurance market are complicated by a range of factors.....	5
... including the growing use of the Internet as a sales channel for white and brown goods .....	5
Use of remote distribution interfaces and alternative marketing approaches could also grow .....	6
1.0 INTRODUCTION .....	8
Rationale.....	8
Most published data focuses disproportionately on the underlying consumer product markets... ..	8
... ignoring the fact that manufacturers and retailers can make large profits from warranties.....	8
Warranties and insurance linked to mobile devices are covered in separate research publications .....	8
Evolving distribution channels both favour and compromise extended warranty provision.....	8
Finaccord.....	8
PartnerBASE™ .....	10
Methodology .....	10
The survey extends to 820 manufacturers and retailers of non-mobile consumer products .....	10
Definitions .....	12
Warranty and insurance products for non-mobile consumer goods come in a variety of formats.....	12
... and are frequently marketed to consumers under alternative titles.....	12
2.0 EUROPEAN OVERVIEW .....	15
Introduction.....	15
Underlying market data.....	16
White goods.....	16
The market for white goods is mature and slow-growing in most European territories.....	16

Brown goods.....	20
The popularity of LCD and plasma televisions boosts the European market for brown goods .....	20
On average, households in the Czech Republic commit the least expenditure to brown goods.....	22
Furniture.....	24
With a value of €27 billion in 2007, Germany is by far Europe's largest market for furniture. ....	24
... with average expenditure per household more than eight times that of neighbouring Poland .....	27
Manufacturer extended warranty programs for white and brown goods.....	29
Manufacturer warranty schemes are most widespread in Belgium, Italy, Spain and the UK... ..	29
... although it is only in the UK that protection ever includes cover for accidental damage.....	30
Most manufacturer brands adhere primarily to a captive model for extended warranty programs .....	31
Retailer extended warranty programs for white and brown goods.....	33
Retailers in France are most likely to have developed their own extended warranty schemes .....	33
In five countries, at least a half of retailer programs incorporate cover for accidental damage .....	34
