Finaccord.....	8
Creditor insurance	8
Mobile telephone insurance.....	9
Travel insurance	9
PartnerBASE™	9
Rationale.....	10
The advance of banks in life insurance and retirement savings is amply documented... ..	10
... although this report offers the first in-depth review of activity in personal niche lines.....	10
Methodology	10
The research is based on a sample of 680 banks serving retail customers	10
2.0 EUROPEAN OVERVIEW	14
Introduction.....	14
Market size and segmentation	15
On a pan-European basis, the market for personal niche policies was worth €15.5 billion in 2005.....	15
Germany accounts for over 50% of the market for legal expenses insurance sold to consumers.....	16
... and nearly two thirds of the pan-European market for non-motor personal liability insurance... ..	17
... although certain other lines of personal niche insurance have been subject to less development	18
The market for stand-alone travel policies in the ten territories was worth some €3.23 billion in 2005... ..	19
Penetration rates	20
Boat / pleasure craft insurance	20
Almost one in ten European banks has introduced a boat / pleasure craft insurance proposition.....	20
Extended warranties.....	22
There is limited rationale for mainstream retail banks to offer stand-alone extended warranties.....	22
Funeral expenses insurance.....	23
Few banks act as distributors in the declining funeral expenses insurance market.....	23

Legal expenses insurance	24
A tradition for providing stand-alone legal expenses cover is well-established in certain markets.....	24
Mobile telephone insurance	26
In spite of near-universal possession of mobile handsets, banks display little interest in this arena.....	26
Personal liability insurance	27
Personal liability cover is often presented as a core component of family protection policies in Italy	27
Pet insurance	29
Over 20% of banks in Austria and the Nordic region offer pet insurance to retail customers.....	29
Travel insurance	30
Stand-alone travel insurance is marketed by almost 30% of retail banks in Europe.....	30
Operating models	32
Use of single, external partners for personal niche insurance is most widespread in Germany... ..	32
... while banks in the Netherlands and Portugal display a preference for use of captive insurers	32
3.0 AUSTRIA	35
Introduction to the banking sector	35
The Austrian retail banking market remains comparatively fragmented	35
Bank Austria Creditanstalt serves 1.8 million customers in its domestic market	35
The Austrian Federation of Trade Unions assumed 100% ownership of BAWAG PSK in 2004	35
Like its rivals, Erste Bank has ambitious growth plans in Central and Eastern Europe	35
RZB ultimately supports 571 autonomous local credit co-operatives	35
Many other banks operate at a local or regional level within Austria.	36
... including several institutions whose primary focus lies on retail lending	36
Market overview	37
Gross premiums written for personal niche insurance exceed €500 million in 2005.....	37
Bancassurance	38
Taken at face value, Austrian banks appear to have had limited success in non-life insurance... ..	38
... although much of their business is intermediated by internal and external brokers	38
Survey results	38
Legal expenses insurance	39
Austrian banks commonly use a brokerage model for non-life bancassurance operations.....	39
... including many of the country's raiffeisenbanken	39
Donau Versicherung is the partner for legal expenses insurance of many of Austria's savings banks ..	39
Personal liability insurance	41
Travel insurance	43
Travel insurance is less frequently provided to customers on a stand-alone basis.....	43
Other personal niche lines	44
Boat insurance, funeral expenses insurance and pet insurance are available through many banks.....	44
Competitor analysis	45
Both Raiffeisen Versicherung and Porsche Versicherung achieve strong premium growth... ..	45
4.0 BELGIUM	47
Introduction to the banking sector	47
In spite of substantial restructuring, Belgium's banking market remains crowded	47
Dexia, Fortis, ING and KBC lead the way... ..	47
... although numerous medium-sized and small banking ventures challenge their dominance.....	47
Market overview	49
Gross premiums written for personal niche insurance grow at an annual average of more than 5%.....	49
Bancassurance	50
Bank branches gain ground across most forms of non-life insurance in Belgium... ..	50
... although bank-owned insurers distribute through a variety of sales channels.....	50
Survey results	50

EUROPEAN NON-LIFE BANCASSURANCE: PERSONAL NICHE LINES

Legal expenses insurance	51
Legal expenses cover is often packaged with either household or personal liability insurance	51
DAS and Arag Assurances both possess bancassurance links for legal expenses insurance	51
Personal liability insurance	53
A quarter of Belgium's consumer banks have an arrangement for offering personal liability policies	53
Travel insurance	55
Several of Belgium's larger banking networks offer stand-alone travel insurance policies	55
... with ING bundling travel assistance into a single policy with road, home and legal assistance	55
Other personal niche lines	56
Belgian banks display little appetite for offering other types of personal niche insurance	56
Competitor analysis	57
Belgium's bank-owned insurance companies continue to make progress in non-life insurance	57
5.0 FRANCE	59
Introduction to the banking sector	59
Mutual and co-operative banks continue to play a substantial role in French retail banking	59
... albeit merger and acquisition activity have changed the landscape in recent years	59
Most foreign entrants fail to make significant headway in the problematic French market	59
... with Abbey, Egg and San Paolo IMI having all withdrawn completely	60
Specialised lenders also play an important role in French retail banking	60
... as do financial services firms belonging to some of the country's largest retailing groups	60
The Crédit Municipal institutions: specialising in low value loans charging low interest rates	61
La Poste is playing an increasingly important part in the French retail financial services scene	61

Bancassurance	63
French banks have achieved only modest growth in non-life insurance in more recent years	63
Survey results	63
Legal expenses insurance	64
Several retail banks in France offer stand-alone legal expenses insurance to consumers	64
Travel insurance	65
Stand-alone travel insurance is rarely offered by banks in France	65
... primarily as a consequence of the preference for bundling travel policies with credit cards	65
Other personal niche lines	67
Personal liability insurance is not marketed on a stand-alone basis in the bancassurance channel	67
... although several banks have introduced mobile telephone insurance as a stand-alone option	67
Competitor analysis	69
Almost all bank-owned insurers in France are expanding their share of non-life insurance	69
6.0 GERMANY	71
Introduction to the banking sector	71
Commercial banks struggle in the face of savings bank and credit co-operative competition	71
Germany's savings banks: continuing adherence to public sector insurers remains the norm	71
R&V is able to meet virtually all the insurance needs of credit co-operative customers	72
Foreign entrants show that reasonable returns can be generated from German retail banking	72
Germany's crowded banking sector provides other feasible bancassurance opportunities	72
Market overview	74
Legal expenses and personal liability policies make up the lion's share of personal niche lines	74
Bancassurance	75
The distribution share of banks in total non-life insurance is unlikely to exceed 10%	75
Survey results	75
